An administrator, faculty member, or staff member nomination serves as one of the student's two required references. References will be asked to submit a letter to the Student Leadership Academy as part of the student's application packet.

Please carefully consider the following when nominating a student:

Please assess this student's demonstration of each of the following abilities by evaluating their leadership potential, oral communication skills, written communication skills, strong work ethic, acceptance of responsibility as a student or club member/officer, and level of maturity.

Please briefly explain your knowledge of this student's leadership potential (former or current student in your class, club or organization member or officer, etc.) and explain why this student merits your nomination for "SLA 2018-2019":

Please note: Once a nomination form has been submitted, the student will receive an email officially informing him/her of their nomination and providing a copy of the SLA Application Reference guidelines. Please talk with your students before nominating them and encourage them to complete the application.

Please return this form by inter-office mail or e-mail to Staci Wilson (swilson@cvcc.edu) no later than Tuesday, September 11, 2018.
