

Any individual may audit a College class one time based on the following:

- A. The individual pays the normal tuition and fees. According to Special Provisions for Senior Citizens cited in the State Board of Community College Code 1E SBCCC 1000.2, a senior citizen may audit a course without payment of any required tuition, but shall pay the applicable self-support fee for registration into a self-supporting course section and shall pay any applicable local fees.
- B. Auditing students do not take tests or examinations (unless specified by the academic department), they do not receive grades, credit or financial aid, and cannot later change the “audit” to credit.
- C. Students auditing a course must meet the same course prerequisite and attendance standards as all other students in the course. Auditing a course will not meet the prerequisite of any sequential or higher-level course.
- D. Auditing is subject to open seats in the course and a student who audits a course shall not displace credit seeking students who enroll in the course.
- E. Students who audit a course and withdraw or are dropped from the course will be issued a grade of “W”.
- F. Students who desire to audit must inform their instructor at the first-class session, complete the appropriate forms and return them to the Registrar’s Office within 15 class days. Audits appear on the grade report as “AU”.
