

The President shall establish procedures for all information and news events which are to be presented to the news media and general public, and shall designate a person or persons to be responsible for the preparation and dissemination of such materials.

Adopted: August 26, 2022